

CPR: Cultural Parenting Revolution

by Nicholeen Peck <http://teachingselfgovernment.com>

Revolution: “In physics, rotation; the circular motion of a body on its axis; a course or motion which brings every point back to the place at which it began to move...

... the motion of a body round any fixed point or center; as the annual revolution of the earth around the sun...

...motion of any thing which brings it to the same point or state: as the revolution of day and night or of the season..” (Webster 1828 Dictionary)

I believe in REVOLUTION...especially when it has to do with parenting!

We absolutely must get back to where parenting began; a time when the motion of daily interaction moved around certain principles.”

Like the earth, we are governed by certain laws. If we understand these laws our parenting will forever be changed.

The point of this class is to turn our minds and hearts back to parenting principles of long ago and to recognize how we can revolutionize ourselves and our families.

We live in a new day, and the way we interact with our children should also reflect a renewal of good parenting practices.
