

Chasing Your Dreams and Becoming the Hero of Your Own Story

Greg Denning

You were born to greatness!

You did not come into this life to sit in the bleachers and watch life pass you by. You have big dreams and an EXTRAORDINARY LIFE to live!

It will only happen when you take full responsibility for yourself and your life, and become the hero of your own story!

In order to chase your dreams, take your ideas to action, and be the hero of your own story, you have to have two things: destination and determination!

Destination:

Where are you going? What do you want your life to be like? What is the vision of who you want to be and how you want to live your life? What do you dream of doing and achieving?

Determination:

This is all about consistent actions and habits. Not what you talk about doing, but what you actually do! What actions and habits will bring you the results you really want? Why haven't you been doing them?

You are only the hero of your own story
when you act like the hero!

There are four levels of action in life:

1. Villain
2. Bystander
3. Average
4. Hero

In what areas of your life are you acting like the villain?

In what areas of your life are you acting like a bystander?

In what areas of your life are you acting like an average person?

In what areas of your life are you being your own hero?

Consistent action turns ideas into results!

What actions and habits can you begin immediately to be the hero of your own story and turn your ideas into realities?
